Counsel,

The subpoenas that you sent us for Mr. Brubaker and Mr. Hill had dates of February 15, and February 17, respectively, for depositions. As we have heard nothing since and received documents from neither Mr. Brubaker nor Mr. Hill in response to the document subpoena also issued by Plaintiffs, we expect the depositions will not be taking place on those dates. If we do not hear otherwise from you in the next 24 hours, we will take these off our calendar.

More generally, absent an explicit agreement regarding a particular deposition, we require, at a minimum, at least 14 days' notice that a deposition is actually taking place. We would of course prefer as much notice as possible and the courtesy of coordinating with Defendants' regarding availability before any date is finalized so that we may minimize rescheduling. We will of course extend the same courtesy to Plaintiffs.

If Plaintiffs anticipate any issues with following this protocol, please let us know.

Thank you,
Savannah
